

Hike on the Scenic MCKENZIE GULCH TRAIL

Saturday, October 6, 2018 * 9-Noon

Junction City

299

Weaverville

Join the Trinity Trail Alliance for a hike on the scenic McKenzie Gulch Trail, near Weaverville, to learn about the historic Sykes Mine Shaft and the re-vegetation efforts in the area since the last fire in 2014.

This event is open to the public and is a family friendly, walk at your own pace, hike. The 3.5 miles is over easy to moderate terrain. Meet at the McKenzie Gulch Trailhead on Weaver Bally Road, 1/4 mile past Victory Lane at 8:45 a.m.

Hikers should dress in comfortable layers and wear sturdy shoes. Bring water, sunscreen and a camera. Refreshments will be provided by the Shasta College Foundation at the trailhead following the hike.

For more information call Susan Molyneux at 623-3161.
